ABSTRACT

From refurbishing old computers donated by companies and installing them with GNU/Linux and Free Software to developing and deploying open education resources and packaging free educational software together in migrant workers schools in Beijing. Pockey intends to share her experience doing those things and hope to get more people to review, improve and deliver this content to children who need it.

BIOGRAPHY

Pockey is passionate about Open Education and Free Software (FOSS). She is currently the Director and Secretary of Digital Freedom Foundation. She is also co-founder and VP of Greenboard, a NGO about open education solution in migrant workers schools in China. Previously she was the President of the Beijing Linux User Group, co-founder and lead organizer of GNOME.Asia. In order to spend all this time volunteering and making a better world, Pockey currently works as a consultant in dao<sup>2</sup> Inc. Before that she was VP Marketing of the Gdium Project, an effort striving to allow everybody to access knowledge for free as well as the CEO of Compario China and the Vice General Manager of Willsee China, a factory of corporate gifts in South China. In her early career stage, she focused in the marketing field working in advertising agencies in Hong Kong and Beijing. Pockey graduated from City University of Hong Kong, with a major in Sales and Marketing. Feel free to visit her blog at <http://pockey.dao2.com> to know more about her.
